Schedule Adopted-Claims Against Waterbury Settled-Athletics Lose Again to Phillies-Baseball Results

New Haven, Conn., April-5.—At a meeting of the directors of the Connecticut State Baseball league here today the schedule for the coming season was formally adopted. Double headers will be played in four cities—Bridgeport at Northampton, New Haven and Holyoke, New Britain at Springfield and Hartford at Waterbury. There are 21 Saturday sames. New Haven, Hartford, Springfield and Bridgeport each have 11 games and the others 10.

The franchise of the Meriden club was officially awarded to Gilbert Edwards of Northampton and he was also elected a director of the league. The claim of Edward Farley for 2324 for unpaid saiary was ordered paid by the league. The claim of Frank Fitzpatrick of the claim of Frank Fitzpatrick of the league. vas a strong recovery before the end of the day. An additional an estiling influence was the expectation of a decision in the case to test the commodi-tic clause of the Hepburn law. The supposition was strongly held that with the reconvening of the supreme court after the spring recess there would be found amongst the accumulation of opinions, usually delivered by the court after such a close period, the one de-eiding the constitutionality of this much discussed provision, on which is believed to hinge the right of the an-thracite carriers to control their own mines. The disposition was plainly
